WASHINGTON FORM CHART.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 8, 1903.—Fifteenth day. Washington Jockey Club. Spring Meeting. Weather wet, track muddy.

Presiding Judge, Clarence McDowell. Starter, Mars Cassidy. Secretary, H. G. Crickmore.

Racing starts at 3:00 p. m. No recall flag used. W indicates whip, S spurs, B blinkers.

38163 FIRST RACE—6 1-2 Furlongs. $400 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Time, 11¹/₂, 24³/₄, 51, 1:18¹/₂, 1:26.
 Winner—B. c. by Longstreet—Laura Ethel (trained by G. Borkel).
 Went to post at 3:00. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won easily; second handily. Turnpike was practically left at the post. Haack was not ready when the barrier went up and the colt was ten lengths out of the race in the first furlong, but went on and hugged the rail all the way while the others went wide, closed up gamely in the stretch and caught the fast tiring Dr. Saylor when a sixteenth from home and won going away. It was a fine performance and stamps Turnpike as an improved colt. Dr. Saylor ran in a good position to the stretch, but went wide on the turns and had to be hard ridden to dispose of Honolulu. The effort was too much for him and he tired in the final furlong. He was slightly lame as he went to the post. Mezzo finished fast on the extreme outside where the going was best. Anna Daly was a sharp contender for six furlongs. Honolulu was at home in the going, but quit badly when caught.
 Scratched—(38149) Merriment, 104; 38054 Blue and Orange, 94.
 Overweights—Turnpike, 2 pounds; Mezzo, 3.
 Turnpike, show, 2 to 5. Dr. Saylor, show, 1 to 6. Mezzo, show, evens. Honolulu, show, 1 to 3.

38164 SECOND RACE—1-2 Mile. $500 added. 2-year-olds. Maidens, fillies and geldings. Allowances.

Time, 13, 25³/₄, 52¹/₂.
 Winner—B. f. by Galore—Conjunctrix (trained by R. W. Walden).
 Went to post at 3:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good for all but Young Jesse. Won easily; second the same. Contentious, easily best, revelled in the going and was eased up at the end. Eleata stood a long drive and was best of the others. Ora McKinney hung on gamely all the way under punishment. Echinate displayed a flash of early speed, but was not up to a hard race. Magic Flute ran poorly. Mica is high in flesh and a race or two should improve her. Young Jesse was green at the post and was practically left.
 Overweights—Ora McKinney, 2 pounds; Mica, 2; Young Jesse, 1.
 Contentious, show, 1 to 5. Eleata, show, 6 to 1. Ora McKinney, show, 6 to 5.

 Winner—Br. c. by G. W. Johnson—Floroon (trained by J. A. Kyle).
 Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Ahumada was easily the best and at home in the going and forced the pace all the way. Redfern shook him up when a furlong from home, but he won with plenty to spare. Tugai Bey outgamed the others in the final drive. Embarrassment began slowly, but made up ground and fought out the finish gamely. Orloff had no mishaps.
 Scratched—(38149) Shrine, 101.
 No show betting.

Time, 13, 25, 50¹/₂, 1:18¹/₂, 1:31¹/₂.
 Winner—Ch. c. by Golden Gate—La Clair (trained by M. Daly).
 Went to post at 4:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Slidell began quickly and Gannon hustled him along. He showed the most speed throughout and was under restraint at the end. It was a poor ride on Daly. He was in pockets all the way and has shown much better form, but is best on a dry track. Annie Grace ran a fair race. Prancer, off poorly and taken up too fast in the first part of the race, tired after going six furlongs. Bassverine was outclassed. It was a poor race for Animosity and she can do better.
 Overweights—Prancer, 3 pounds; Animosity, 1.
 Slidell, show, 1 to 2. Annie Grace, show, 6 to 5.

38167 FIFTH RACE—7-8 Mile. $400 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

 Time, 12¹/₂, 25³/₄, 51¹/₂, 1:18¹/₂, 1:32¹/₂.
 Winner—Ch. c. by Halma—Token (trained by D. Carter).
 Went to post at 4:55. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second handily. Odom rode a vigorous finish on Locket and that won for him. He was tiring fast at the end after forcing the pace from the start. Springbrook ran a good race and would have won, but Chappell could not cope with Odom at the end. Zirl also ran a good race, but the route was a trifle too far and she tired in the last sixteenth. Blue Victor and Black Dick finished very fast on the extreme outside and would have had the race between them in another sixteenth. Imperious made up a lot of ground after getting away poorly, then tired. Alpaca should improve. Her race was a good one for nearly six furlongs.
 Scratched—(38166) Slidell, 113; 38166 Annie Grace, 110.
 Locket, show, evens. Springbrook, show, 2 to 1. Zirl, show, evens. Imperious, show, 7 to 10.

 Winner—B. c. by Fitz James—Queen's Taste (trained by H. E. Rowell).
 Went to post at 5:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Bon Mot ran a good race in the going and was best at the weights. He stumbled badly fifty yards from the finish, but recovered quickly and was doing his best at the end. Lord Badge is a consistent gelding, handled the weight well and stood a long drive, fighting out the finish gamely. Circus ran well, was slowly gaining at the end, is rounding to and will win in this going. Athelroy stumbled on the backstretch when he was going well and could not get up again, the weight being too much. Bar Le Duc was poorly handled and shut off while turning for home and was eased up at the end.
 Scratched—38022 Yellow Tail, 126; 38488 Orontas, 125; (38131) April Shower, 119; 38166² Daly, 115; 38147 Ben Battle, 100.

 Went to post at 2:33. At post 6 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. The Forum was well ridden and ran a good race. Gilmore laid in behind the leaders for the first half with him, took command on the turn for home and came away quickly in the stretch. Lynch was on the outside all the way, finished fast and caught Beautiful and Best tiring and got second place in the last stride. The latter showed much early speed, but tired as if short. Glendon began slowly and closed a big gap. Lady Winkle and Afghan ran well to the stretch. Choice ran poorly.

Winner--Ch. c. by Onondaga--Patty of Cork (trained by G. W. Poole).
Went to post at 3:42. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving.
Foxy Kane displayed superior speed, raced John A. Scott to retirement in the first half and came away without urging in the last furlong. Semper Vivum had a rough trip, was cut off on the backstretch and at the far turn and came through on the inside at the turn into the homestretch and tired in the final drive. The race should improve her. The Don finished going fast and would have been second in another stride. John A. Scott stumbled when the barrier went up and was used up in getting to the front on the backstretch and tired when it came to a drive. Tancred ran poorly and can do better.
Overweights--Semper Vivum, 4 pounds; Canyon, 2; Jake Greenberg, 1.

Winner--B. c. by Gaylad--Calamity Jane (trained by W. S. Price).
Went to post at 4:16. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same.
Myron Dale was off well in motion, raced Escalera to subjection in the first three furlongs and had enough left to stall off a challenge from Montholon. The latter ran his race and had no mishaps. Dr. Loder began slowly, but finished going fast and outgamed Bird Pond. The latter ran her race. Rainland is a slow breaker and Donnelly could not get him to going freely. He swerved all over the track in the stretch run. Escalera ran disappointingly.
Overweights--Myron Dale, 1 pound.

Little Jack Horner showed the most speed all the way, hung on gamely when the pinch came and was going away in the last twenty yards. Suburban Queen finished fast and outgamed Miss Hume at the end. The latter began slowly and had to go all around her field to get up. Optional tired badly. Louise Collier had no mishaps.

Winner--B. c. by Likely--Vandora (trained by E. Peters).
Went to post at 2:13. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second the same.
Judge Voorhees ran in suddenly improved form. Away badly, he gradually closed a big early gap and flashed through next to the rail in the last quarter with unexpected speed and stamina and was much the best. Puss in Boots beat the barrier and made the most of her advantage, appeared like holding the field safe until in the last furlong, where she tired badly. J. H. Bennett ran a phenomenally improved race for him and is difficult to guess. Oro Viva was always outrun. Gibraltar went well. Alice Cary was nearly left and made no effort to improve her position. J. Boggs ran badly and can do better. The same applies to Clivoso.
Scratched--37630 Milas, 116; 37002 Malaspina, 111; 38102 Del Vista, 109; 37993 Blue Miracle, 104; 38122 Anvil, 101; 38122 Pickaway, 101.

Keogh got away in his stride, was waited with in front and came away fast when straightened for the wire and ran in game improving form. Sacredus, clumsy and slow at the start, fell out of contention early, but was closing up with a whirlwind rush and was evidently best. Military Man, away flatfooted and in close quarters next to the rail, went around the field on the turn and finished fast under weak handling. Throw his race out. Dr. Rowell was going well in the last quarter. Planet essayed to force the pace and retired after going a fast quarter.

Tufts ran a surprisingly good race in spite of the fast early pace. He was well up in the first part of the race and moved up fast on the far turn, taking a winning lead when a furlong out. Blessed Damozel, excessively used in following the fast pace too closely, lost ground by a wide stretch turn and finished out a long stretch drive gamely. Expedient was whipped into prominent contention at the end of nine furlongs and then unexpectedly failed to stay. Tom Slavin evidently likes a route, forced the fast running for the first mile and sustained his speed unexpectedly well. Star Cotton retired after going a good mile and was crowded and messed about in the last quarter. Rosarie went well.
Overweights--Rosarie, 2 pounds.

Dainty was lucky at the start and skillfully reserved to the stretch, where she made good after sustaining a desperate drive. Grafter was always prominent and came through next to the rail at the end, but was crowded in the last sixteenth and was best. Bill Massie, suddenly improved, essayed to make a runaway race of it and nearly succeeded, displayed his old time form and ran a fast and game race. The Fretter unexpectedly fell away in the last quarter and was badly ridden. Searcher is improving and due in a long race among slower ones. Water Cure was well in hand for seven furlongs, but failed to stay. John Lemmons was crowded at the half and easing up in the last quarter.

TRAINING AT LAKESIDE.

Late arrivals at Lakeside have taken possession of every available stall and the stables are filled to overflowing. Every stable adjacent to the track has been engaged and despite this there will be a scarcity of quarters to house the newcomers to arrive before the opening day. At present there are more than 300 horses stabled on the track and trains are bringing additions daily.

The last few days of bad weather has caused the majority of owners to go slow with their charges and what little exercise has been done was confined mainly to the roads where the horses have been trotted and jogged for the most part, but with a return of fine weather the track is alive with horses which are being put to their best paces. The track yesterday although not fast was nevertheless good and the workouts of the different horses seemed to be entirely satisfactory to their owners.

The best work of the morning, so considered by horsemen, was that of Clint De Witt's three-year-old Will Sherry, which circled the track hard held in a fraction less than 1:46. Considering the state of the track and the high wind that was blowing, the workout was a splendid one and indicates that Will Sherry is a much improved horse since going into winter quarters. Others in the De Witt string were given slow exercise with the exception of Jaubert and Red Tip, which were worked in company a half mile in 51 1/2 seconds, both being well in hand throughout the journey. Zibia, a recent acquisition to the De Witt stable and the winner of last year's Lakeside Inaugural at sensational odds, is reported to have worked last week three-quarters in 1:18 1/2.

S. G. Morton's horses are all receiving a careful preparation under the watchful care of George Baker, and are in good condition. The best work done by any of them was that of Double O., which negotiated three-quarters in 1:16 1/2.

Gregor K., Walter Hedges' American Derby candidate, although having worked recently three-quarters in 1:18 2-5 was not asked to repeat the journey in better time than 1:21 Monday morning. Haydon and San Sargassa in the same stable have gone a half mile in 51 1/2 seconds rather handily, and Arigato is reported to have negotiated five furlongs in 1:03. The latter is owned by jockey Mathews' father and gives promise of becoming a useful racer.

Alderman T. Carey's horses Malay, Nellie Waddell and Pronta are being permitted to take things easy and nothing faster than a two minute clip has been asked of them.

J. D. McMillan's pair, Dandola and Angelo, have wintered well and are sufficiently advanced in their preparations to be carded among the starters during the early part of the meeting. Angelo recently worked three-quarters in 1:20 under restraint.

G. B. Havill's Chicago Girl and Grayville worked three-quarters in 1:20. G. B. Grimes' pair, Miss Liza and Old Mike, have been worked three-quarters in 1:19 1/2 and a mile in 1:47, the first named being in front at the finish.

Meehanus, a frequent winner on the California tracks the past winter, worked five furlongs yesterday in 1:02 1/2, going smoothly and being well in hand for the entire distance.

W. Burke's horses, Goldaga and Prodigal Sen, which were raced at New Orleans last winter, appear to have been benefited by their short rest since their arrival from the Crescent City and worked three-quarters yesterday in 1:18.

The two-year-olds belonging to various owners are showing a high order of speed and workouts of a quarter in 24 seconds appear common. The best work so far shown by any of them over a distance was done by a youngster by The Hero, which covered a half mile in 50 seconds.

Maurice McKnight, assistant starter to Mr. Dwyer, has put up a gate at the track for the purpose of schooling the youngsters how to behave while at the post.

F. T. Wood arrived yesterday at the track from his home in Texas with six horses, consisting of Leo Newell, Stem Winder and four two-year-olds. All the horses appear in excellent health, especially Stem Winder, which has filled out wonderfully and will no doubt make a worthy successor to Money Muss, which Mr. Wood disposed of to G. B. Morris at Worth last fall.

J. F. Newman is also a recent arrival. Like Mr. Wood he has wintered his charges in Texas. Burnie Bunton, the star in his stable, and Our Bessie appear a trifle high in flesh, but the six two-year-olds, all the get of Rancocas, which make up the rest of the string are a splendid looking band of youngsters and should give a good account of themselves in the near future.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Barney Schreiber, Missouri's favorite son on the turf, arrived at St. Louis from San Francisco last Friday. Mr. Schreiber never looked so well in his life. He said that he had quite a good season in a financial way, though he has had better ones in California. He had three books on all winter, and still has them. Phil Hammel, Frank George and J. J. Carroll are his representatives. The owner of Woodlands is much put out over the sickness of his horses at Little Rock. The entire stable has been very ill. Geheimnis and Otis went especially bad, while Semolina and Otto Stifel, the crack two-year-olds, are even worse off. Schreiber does not expect much out of the Little Rock division of the stable until late in the summer. He has, however, ten good two-year-olds at the Fair Grounds, and a division at the farm, which will be raced at Kinloch. Speaking of racing in California, Mr. Schreiber said that Mr. Williams had given them a splendid season, that money was plentiful and racing excellent. Mr. Schreiber regards Williams as a master hand in racing, and thinks that his organization, the New California Jockey Club, is so strongly entrenched on the coast that there will not be any displacing it.—St. Louis Republic.

Stable room at Churchill Downs has become almost a nightmare with Secretary-Manager Charles F. Price. Though the meeting at the Downs is one month distant, every stall at the famous course is either occupied or has been engaged, and stable room about the course is now at a premium and almost impossible to secure. Mr. Price has been compelled to refuse stable room to two horsemen. C. Hellebush, wired from Memphis requesting room for ten horses and C. Elmer Bailey, of Lexington, wrote for eight stalls for as many thoroughbreds, but Mr. Price was compelled to refuse both applications for the simple reason that he did not have any place to put the horses. Had these men applied earlier for stalls they would have been accommodated, but the demand of late has been so great that there was nothing else to do but refuse the request.

Fred Foster paid a visit to Sheephead Bay last Sunday for the purpose of renewing old acquaintances and having a look at the thoroughbreds. Mr. Foster still has Dr. Rice stabled at Hoboken, and, although he has had several liberal offers for the horse, he has not decided yet whether to sell or to breed the great thoroughbred himself. The mare Samorou, which recently foaled a colt by Saraband, has been sold to J. F. Hays, terms private. The mare is of high class, and would be an acquisition to any breeding establishment in the land. She was sold individually, and Mr. Foster retains the recently foaled suckling for himself. Mr. Foster has no immediate plans for the future, and will take his time before returning to Austria to resume his racing there.

Turney Bros. are now at Kinloch, St. Louis, with their string, and have rented a cottage near the track. There are about 150 horses at the track, many stables having shipped horses needing a rest after New Orleans. The track is in good condition, and being twelve miles from St. Louis, trainers find it better for their employees than one within a few minutes' ride of the city. Kirby Orr is there with a string from New Orleans, and a small bunch of young Texas bred two-year-olds. Burrows and Covington are on the way east with twenty horses from California. From Little Rock all of the Schreiber horses that are not fit to race will be sent to the farm for a rest. About twenty are suffering from catarrhal fever, and, of course, including the pick of the stable, like Geheimnis, a filly thought to have every three-year-old filly stake at her mercy, and might have had a look-in for some of the other three-year-old events. She is said to be little more than a skeleton, and may never race again, certainly not this year, unless very late in the season. Mr. Schreiber's two-year-old colt Leopard, by Foul Shot—Voralia, is said to be more than a fair two-year-old, and won handily at Clinton Park. Foul Shot is considered a failure in the stud, but each year he has two or three high-classed ones to keep him from being retired.

Jockey Robbins, the clever little lightweight under contract to J. Follansbee this year, met with an accident at Memphis Sunday morning, which will keep him out of the saddle for some time. While skylarking around with some boys he broke the wrist of his right arm. Last winter while exercising Oronte at New Orleans he fell and broke this same arm, and it has always bothered him since. Robbins was taken to town, and his wrist set and left later for Chicago in company with his mother and Mrs. Arthur.

E. Trotter has purchased of McNulty & McDermott the chestnut gelding Censor, which the latter claimed from Sam Hildreth recently. The price paid was said to be $1,800.

POPULAR BLOOD LINES.

According to tradition the first Arabian ever brought to England was the Markham, imported by a Turkish merchant of that name, and sold to King James I. for 500 guineas. There is some reason to credit this, as Gervase Markham, who wrote a treatise on the horse in the previous reign, makes no mention of Arabians.

A Duke of Newcastle, who wrote a book on horsemanship shortly after the death of James I., states that he had frequently seen the horse, which he describes as an undersized and by no means well shaped bay. He won several plates at Newmarket for the king, who was passionately fond of racing, but there is no record of his having sired anything of note.

Straddling, sometimes called the Lister Turk, was brought over in the reign of James II. by the Duke of Berwick, who captured him at the battle of Buda in Hungary. He was the sire of Snake, whose name appears in some pedigrees, but the first to appear in England of the three famous eastern horses that founded the modern thoroughbred was the Byerly Turk, about the year 1699.

Though this horse was bred to very few mares, he got racers which distinguished themselves in Sprite, Black Hearty and Barto, and also sired Jigg, described in the old annals as a very indifferent racehorse, but destined to make his sire live forever in breeding archives.

The Darley Arabian was brought over by the brother of a Yorkshire squire who had been traveling in Turkey. He was bred to very few mares besides those of his owner and neighbor, Mr. Childers. For Mr. Darley he sired Almanzor (1713) a champion racehorse and his full brother Aleppo for which the Duke of Somerset paid a high price, as values went in those days.

But the Darley sire did much better for Mr. Childers than for his owner, as mated with Betty Leedes he got Flying Childers, foaled in 1715. This horse is supposed to have been the champion racehorse of the eighteenth century, not even excepting his relative, Eclipse, for when six years old he gave twelve pounds to Fox, considered up to then the best horse in England, and beat him a quarter of a mile over the four miles Beacon course at Newmarket.

As a sire Bartlett's Childers, whose title to be the full brother of his flying namesake is disputed, but which was undoubtedly a son of the Darley Arabian, far outshone his relative, as he was the great grandfather of Eclipse.
